Financial Money Management Graduates Show Off Diplomas.

SAN BERNARDINO—Help is on the way for those in need of financial assistance during these tough economic times. Time for Change Foundation is offering its second free ten-week course designed to help community members get out of debt, repair their credit score, develop a budget, and build a sound financial foundation for the future.

The class is a project supported by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. With the help of US Bank and a generous contribution of federal stimulus dollars from Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino,

Time for Change Foundation will provide community members with the second of two ten-week classes focused on financial education and empowerment.

"I really learned a lot in the [February] class. It was wonderful," said Michelle Vargas, a graduate of the February course. "It helped me get my credit back in order. Before the class, I had no idea what was going on until the class helped me figure it out. I got a lot of empowering information." She explained.

The free classes will begin, May 26, 2010 at St. John's Community Success Center, located at 1407 N. Arrowhead Avenue, San Bernardino, CA, 92405. They will continue through July 28, 2010. Free Childcare and free dinner is provided. Enrollment is on a first come, first served basis. For more information contact Mark at (909) 239-5232.

The mission of the Time for Change Foundation is to provide essential resources, through its programs and services, to homeless women and their children who desire to change the course of their lives by making the transition from homelessness to recidivism to self-sufficiency.
