TIME FOR CHANGE HOSTS 17TH AWARDS GALA

By Sarah Johnson

The TIME FOR CHANGE Foundation, a Chicago-based organization, recently hosted its 17th annual awards gala, a night designed to honor and celebrate the achievements of women and girls.

"We are proud to recognize the extraordinary contributions of women and girls who are leading change in their communities and the world," said Sarah Johnson, founder and CEO of the TIME FOR CHANGE Foundation.

The event, held at the Grand Ballroom of the Drake Hotel in Chicago, featured keynote speeches, musical performances, and a presentation of awards to 12 outstanding leaders.

"It is an honor to be recognized by TIME FOR CHANGE," said one of the recipients. "This recognition is a reminder of the progress we can make when we stand together and work for a better future for all women and girls.

The foundation's mission is to inspire and empower women and girls to become leaders in their communities and to create positive change. Through educational programs, mentorship, and advocacy, the foundation supports girls in countries around the world to achieve their full potential and reach their dreams.

For more information, visit the TIME FOR CHANGE Foundation's website at timeforchange.org.