Molina Healthcare honors five leaders for their service to local communities

Molina Healthcare of California celebrated five community leaders for their outstanding service in Inland Empire during a ceremony on April 26 at the Double-Tree by Hilton in San Bernardino.

All five of the 2018 Community Champions received a $1,000 grant to donate to the non-profit of their choice as well as a trophy.

The honorees were:

- James McPherson, a compassionate and dedicated leader at

Path of Life Ministries, helping the homeless rebuild their lives so they can achieve their goals.

- Vanessa Perez, a young leader who has volunteered extensively with the Homeless Empowerment Leadership Project with the Time for Change Foundation, in addition to serving at The Way World Outreach church.

- Isabella Orozco, an impressive junior honors student in the Health Science Academy at Chino

Hills High School.

- Feliciano Godoy, who, after undergoing rehabilitative services for loss of sight in 2010, worked hard to become the lead rehabilitation technology instructor at Blindness Support Services.

- Connie Edwards, who established the Community Wellness Center at Creekside Elementary School in Moreno Valley, which offers free services including onsite dental and medical care.
