In response to the housing crisis and the effects of mass incarceration and family separation, TFCF implemented an array of evidence-based programs, housing, and trauma-informed approaches to address their needs. Equally important are our leadership development and advocacy projects, which are necessary to bring the voices of those most impacted by punitive policies into policy advocacy and civic engagement.

The 3rd Annual Anthem Awards winners will be announced on Tuesday, January 30th, 2024. Finalists can be celebrated online from December 5th to December 21st at Celebrate.Anthemawards.com.

Being recognized for such a prestigious award makes the work worth it. The Time for Change Foundation was birthed from my own experiences dealing with homelessness, economic disadvantages, and even incarceration. Women deserve a second chance, and I'm excited that TFCF has been able to provide that.
